

TABLE OF CONTENTS

A MESSAGE TO READERS.....	6
CHAPTER 1 THE SUMMER OF 1914.....	7
CHAPTER 2 A CRUEL SURPRISE.....	8
CHAPTER 3 THE SUBMARINES OF THE AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN NAVY.....	9
CHAPTER 4 THE WAR BEGINS.....	19
CHAPTER 5 THE FIRST SUCCESSES.....	25
CHAPTER 6 HELP FOR THE TURKS.....	34
CHAPTER 7 THE BLOCKADE OF MONTENEGRO.....	37
CHAPTER 8 ITALY ENTERS THE WAR.....	40
CHAPTER 9 WHO WILL BE MASTER OF THE ADRIATIC?.....	48
CHAPTER 10 THE BALKAN OFFENSIVE.....	57
CHAPTER 11 THE OCCUPATION OF DURAZZO.....	63
CHAPTER 12 SUBMARINE OPERATIONS OF OTHER WARRING STATES, AND PRECAUTIONS TAKEN BY THE ENTENTE NATIONS.....	68
CHAPTER 13 THE UNRESTRICTED SUBMARINE WAR A PRECARIOUS BALANCE.....	82
CHAPTER 14 DEFENCES INCREASE.....	97
CHAPTER 15 CONSTRUCTION OF OTHER SUBMARINES.....	105
CHAPTER 16 THE AGONY.....	109
CHAPTER 17 THE SECONDARY BATTLEFIELDS.....	115
CHAPTER 18 THE END OF THE WAR AND THE BREAK-UP OF THE DUAL MONARCHY.....	129
CONCLUSION.....	134
APPENDICES.....	135
SUBMARINE SCALE PROFILES.....	139
BIBLIOGRAPHY.....	149
SHIP'S INDEX.....	150

Acknowledgements

I would like to name everyone to whom I am grateful during the writing of this book. However, there are many of them and I would not like to forget anybody. Allow me to mention those whose share is the most significant. My great thanks go to the technical editor of the ARES publishers and owner of the photo-archives Mare-Czech Mr Marek Píkrýl for the additional photos, Mr Vladimír Francev for his remarks, and Mr Zdeněk Tollár for the compilation of tables. My thanks also go to Ing René Greger for his technical advice, to the management of the (Škoda Museum) and the (Západočeské muzeum v Plzni (the West Bohemia Museum in Plzeň) for their permission to use archived historical materials. My thanks to all who provided me with their period photos; I do not mention the name of organisations or persons here, because they are added to description of each photo.

Author

